How do I read this information from the sample course?

PHY-3610* Astrophysics I4.0 Credits
Students must have a basic understanding of $E = MC^2$.

The course code and number are PHY-3610. When an asterisk is indicated after the course number, then the course has a prerequisite and/or a corequisite. They are listed in the OCC Catalog. Students can view the catalog online at www.catalog.oaklandcc.edu, or they may obtain one at any OCC campus.

The course title is Astrophysics I. Some course titles may be abbreviated.

The number of credits for a course is indicated in this section.

If a coursenote appears after the first line of information, then the coursenote applies to all sections offered for the course at this campus.

How do I read the information about the section I want?

REGISTRATION CODE	SECTION NUMBER	# OF WEEKS	START/END DATE	DAYS	TIMES	ROOM	INSTRUCTOR	FEES
006543	A1501	15	01/09/12-04/30/12	MW W	10:00AM-12:25PM 12:30PM-02:25PM	C119 C119	Einstein	$20
Scientific calculator required.

A coursenote that applies to a particular section is listed immediately beneath that section's information. This coursenote is in addition to the coursenote that applies to all PHY-3610 sections at this campus (see above).

Registration Code You will be using the Registration Code to register for classes or to make changes to your schedule. Whether you are using Touch*Tone or are at any OCC campus, your transactions will be conducted using this code.

Section Number This alpha-numeric designates the campus and section of the course. This number will be used for on-campus registration or schedule adjustment.

of Weeks This is the number of weeks a section will meet. Even though two sections of the same class may meet a different number of weeks, you still receive the same amount of instruction.

Start/End Date PLEASE PAY SPECIAL ATTENTION TO THE DATES YOUR SECTION BEGINS AND ENDS! The start and end dates are when each section meets. The start date is also used for determining Schedule Adjustment dates, refund dates, and last day to drop dates.

Days These are the days of the week a section meets.
M = Monday T = Tuesday W = Wednesday Th = Thursday F = Friday Sa = Saturday Su = Sunday

Examples: MW means the section meets Mondays and Wednesdays
TTh means the section meets Tuesdays and Thursdays
MThSa means the section meets Mondays, Thursdays, and Saturdays

Students taking classes that meet by arrangement should refer to the coursenote of the section and/or course for additional information.

Times These are the times a section will meet on the days specified. An hour of instruction provides 55 minutes of class time.

Room This is the building and the room in which a section will meet at the days and times specified.

Instructor This is the name of the instructor teaching a section. If "Staff" is indicated, then an instructor has yet to be announced for the section.

Fees These are the course fees associated with the section. They are added to your tuition payment at the time you register or change your schedule.

PLEASE NOTE THE DATES YOUR SECTIONS MEET. MAKE SURE YOU KNOW WHEN YOUR CLASS BEGINS AND ENDS.
